

Our vision

Essential professional partner connecting the best minds and best practice in financial services.

Our mission

Raising standards in the financial services industry by fostering professional development and market integrity by:

- connecting people and knowledge;
- providing practical and contemporary education;
- promoting ethical and effective practice; and
- championing the status of our members and the stature of our industry.