

The BFO Industry Young Ambassador Program

The Banking and Finance Oath are pleased to announce the launch of The BFO Industry Young Ambassador Program. The BFO (thebfo.org) is an initiative founded by industry leaders and affiliated with The Ethics Centre. The Oath contains a set of commitments that individuals can adopt and apply as personal principles in their work.

In recognition of the fact that the young people of today are the future leaders of the industry The BFO Board, Chaired by John F. Laker (former Chairman of APRA) and The BFO Policy Council, Chaired by Simon McKeon wish to create a closer alliance with between current and future leaders.

The BFO Industry Young Ambassadors will have the following opportunities:

- An invitation to a BFO Like-minded Lunch, hosted by an industry leader with senior executives from a range of banks and financial institutions in attendance
- A one-on-one meeting with an Industry 'Elder', a respected retired member of the banking and finance industry
- Participation in a 1 day 'Vision Workshop' where the Ambassadors work together to develop a concept to present to the BFO Board
- A personal introduction to the BFO Board and Policy Council
- Free tickets to BFO events for Ambassadors and one friend

The BFO Industry Young Ambassadors will be expected to champion the Oath in their workplace and network; this will include a willingness to speak at events and forums.

Selection Criteria

We are seeking a combination of qualities in our Ambassadors; most important is a commitment to an ethical and just society.

Specifically a BFO Industry Young Ambassador should:

- Be graduate or under the age of 30
- Be thoughtful and known for their good judgment
- Have actively pursued leadership opportunities
- Have an interest in ethics
- Work in the banking and finance industry
- Be a signatory of The Oath (performed online at thebfo.org)

Application Process

Interested applicants are required to complete The BFO Industry Young Ambassador Application Form available on The BFO website thebfo.org

Applicants will be shortlisted with the Board of The BFO deciding on a minimum of two Industry Young Ambassadors for 2017-18.
